Madanbhau Patil College of Nursing, Kavalapur, Sangli celebrated Ganesh Chaturthi with devotion and enthusiasm from 27th August 2025 to 2nd September 2025. The entire program was organized under the guidance of the Student Nurses' Association (SNA) in collaboration with the 4th Semester students. The celebration was marked by rituals, cultural activities, and active participation of both teaching and non-teaching staff.

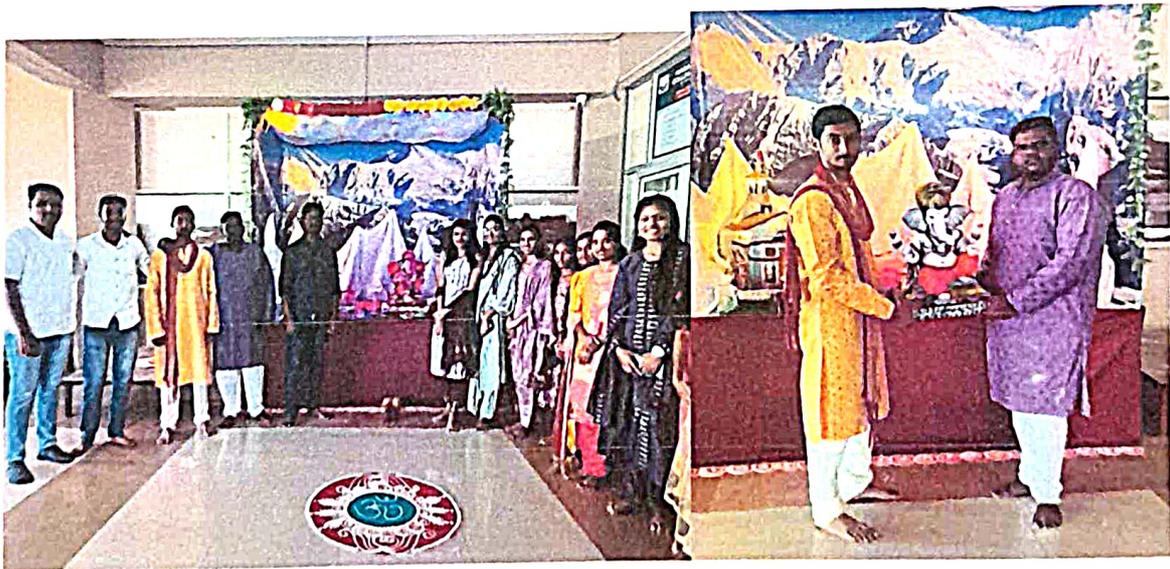

On 27/08/25, The celebration began with the arrival (Ganesh Aagman) of Lord Ganesha in the college premises. The idol was welcomed with traditional aarti, devotional songs, and offerings by students and staff.

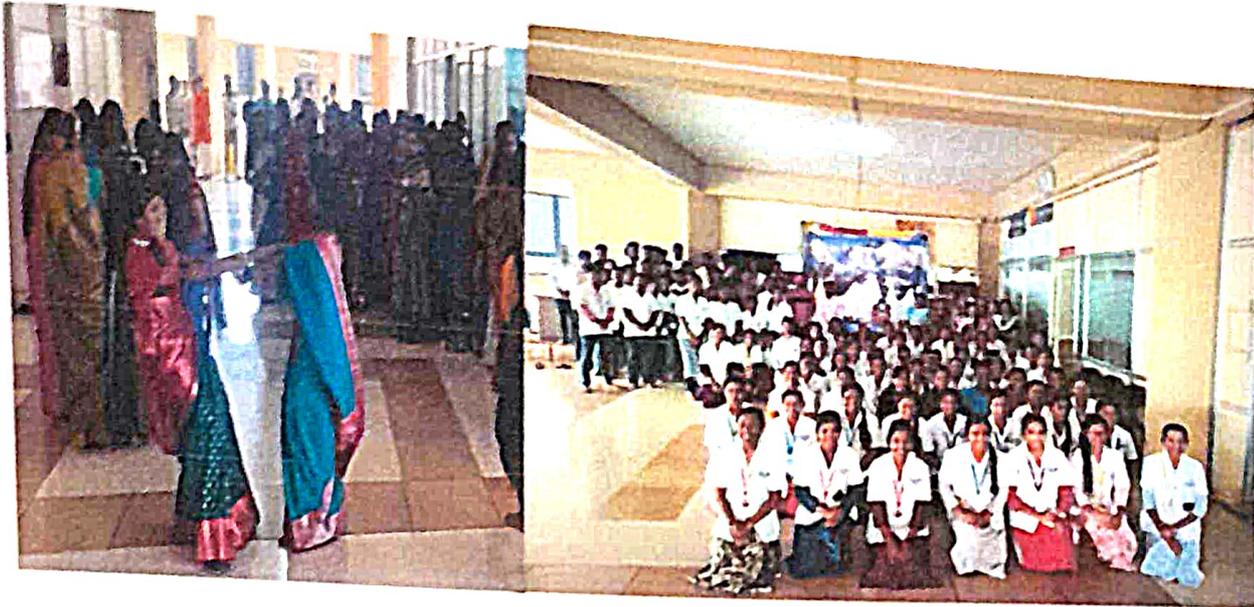

A well-structured schedule of Aarti and Prasad for the 7 days was prepared in advance. Responsibilities were distributed batch-wise and among the teaching and non-teaching staff, ensuring equal participation in both morning and evening sessions.

On the fifth day 01/09/25 , a Satyanarayan Pooja was organized with full rituals, followed by distribution of Mahaprasad. In the cultural spirit, Mangalagaur Games were conducted, bringing joy and active participation of students and faculty members.

On 2nd September 2025, Regular lectures were conducted from 9:30 AM to 1:30 PM. The afternoon session was dedicated to the farewell of Lord Ganesha. At 2:00 PM onwards, students actively participated in dance and celebration before the grand Ganesh Visarjan procession, which was carried out with devotion, music, and enthusiasm.

The Ganesh Chaturthi celebration brought the entire college together, strengthening unity, cultural bonding, and devotion among students and staff. The event concluded on a joyful and spiritual note with the visarjan of Lord Ganesha, leaving behind cherished memories and blessings.
