Madanbhou Patil College of Nursing, Kavalapur, Sangli organized an Anti-Ragging Day Celebration with the objective of creating awareness about the ill effects of ragging, promoting a safe and respectful campus environment, and reaffirming the commitment of students to maintain discipline and harmony.

In accordance with the guidelines of the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Indian Nursing Council (INC) to create a ragging-free educational environment, the Student Nurses Association (SNA) of Madanbhou Patil College of Nursing, Kavalapur, Sangli observed Anti-Ragging Day with great enthusiasm and commitment.

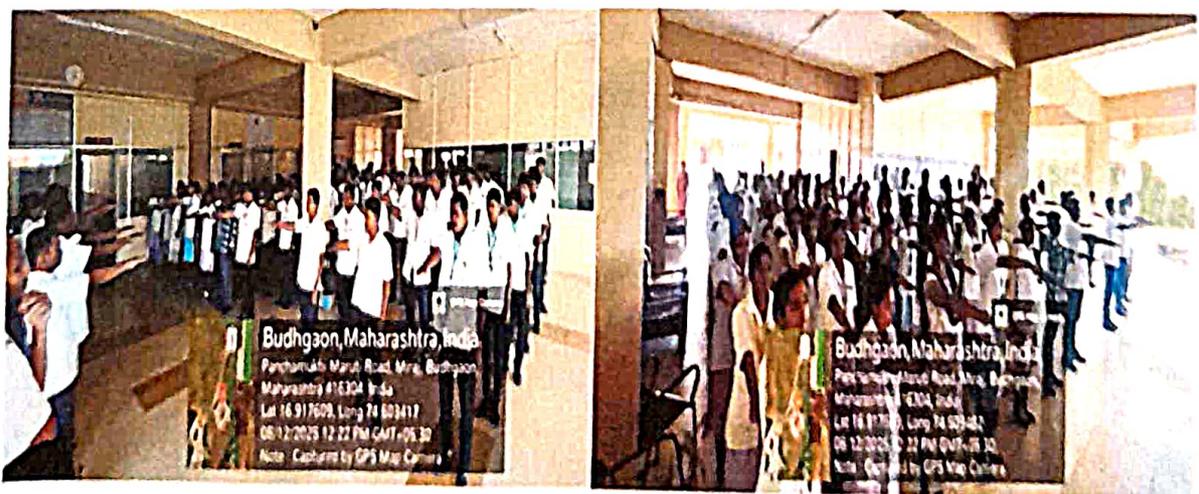

The program began with an enlightening address by the SNA Advisor, who emphasized the importance of eradicating ragging from educational institutions.

A series of student-created posters were displayed on the theme "Say No to Ragging". These posters depicted the harmful consequences of ragging and the importance of a supportive environment for newcomers.

An informative and impactful short video reel on anti-ragging was screened for students. The reel showcased real-life scenarios, preventive measures, and motivational messages to spread the anti-ragging message effectively.

All faculty members and students participated in the Anti-Ragging Pledge. The pledge reaffirmed their commitment to maintaining a ragging-free campus, treating everyone with dignity, and reporting any incidents without hesitation.

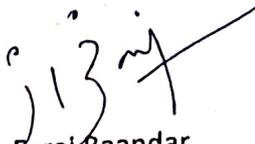

The Anti-Ragging Day celebration was a great success, fostering awareness and responsibility among students. Through interactive sessions, visual displays, and the pledge, participants were reminded of their duty to uphold the dignity and safety of all members of the college community.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks to the faculty, students, and SNA members for their active participation.
