SIXTH AND SEVENTH SEM BSC NURSING STUDENTS

DATE - 24/12/2025

Madanbhou Patil College of Nursing, Kavalapur, Sangli celebrated Christmas in a warm and joyful atmosphere with a small yet meaningful celebration by the 6th and 7th Semester B.Sc. Nursing students. The program aimed to promote togetherness, joy, and the spirit of sharing among students and faculty.

The celebration began with a brief gathering where students exchanged Secret Santa gifts, creating excitement and happiness among the participants. The activity encouraged friendship, bonding, and the true essence of Christmas—giving and caring for one another.

This was followed by a cake-cutting ceremony, which added a festive touch to the occasion. Students and faculty members joined together to share the cake, spreading cheer and goodwill.

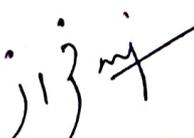

The highlight of the celebration was a special address by the Hon'ble Principal, who spoke about the significance of Secret Santa, emphasizing values such as love, generosity, kindness, and unity. The address inspired students to carry these values not only during festivities but also in their personal and professional lives as future nurses.

The Christmas celebration concluded on a happy and positive note, leaving everyone with cherished memories. The simple yet heartfelt program strengthened unity and reflected the true spirit of Christmas within the college community.
