Madanbhou Patil College of Nursing, Kavalapur, Sangli organized the Freshers' Party with great enthusiasm to welcome the newly admitted B.Sc. Nursing and GNM students. The program was conducted in a joyful and disciplined atmosphere with the active involvement of students and faculty members.

The program was organized by Sna and 3rd sem bsc nursing students in a dignified and vibrant manner with the active participation of students and faculty members.

The program began with Deep Prajvalan, symbolizing the light of knowledge, wisdom, and new beginnings. This was followed by the address by the Hon'ble Principal, who welcomed the juniors and motivated them to maintain discipline, dedication, and excellence throughout their nursing education.

Following this, the Vice President of the Student Body delivered a speech, highlighting the values, achievements, academic culture, and opportunities provided by the college.

The event continued with the formal welcoming, introduction, and felicitation of the newly admitted B.Sc. Nursing and GNM students, making them feel comfortable, confident, and proud to be part of the institution.

A lively singing jam performance added energy and entertainment to the program, followed by six colorful dance performances presented by senior students, showcasing talent, coordination, and cultural diversity.

One of the most impactful moments of the program was a powerful drama on rape, which sensitively addressed social issues, emphasized women's safety, awareness, and the need for collective responsibility in society. The performance left a strong message and created awareness among students.

The program concluded with a Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to the Principal, faculty members, organizers, participants, and all students who contributed to the success of the event. The Freshers' Party concluded on a positive note, strengthening bonds between seniors and juniors and creating lasting memories.
